

WHY WORKERS SUPPORT BERNIE SANDERS FOR PRESIDENT

In the next election for President, the American people will make a fundamental decision:

- Do we continue the growing gap between the very rich and everyone else, or do we fight for a progressive economic agenda that creates jobs, raises wages, protects the environment and provides health care for all?
- Are we prepared to take on the enormous economic and political power of the billionaire class, or do we continue to slide into economic and political oligarchy?

These are the most important questions of our time, and how we answer them will determine the future of our country.

LABOR FOR BERNIE 2016

Bernie Sanders' presidential campaign is being called the most serious threat to establishment politics and economics in a generation -- and all it took were a few big events and 400,000 individual contributions. But they ain't seen nothing yet.

As important as they are, crowds and donations are not enough to take this country back from the billionaire class. What's it going to take? Organizing.

Labor for Bernie is bringing together union leaders and active members to create a grassroots movement that will help elect Bernie Sanders as our next president and fundamentally change the direction of our country.

BERNIE SANDERS HAS A REAL TRACK RECORD OF FIGHTING FOR THE ISSUES THAT UNION MEMBERS CARE ABOUT:

- ★ Creating decent paying jobs
- ★ Collective bargaining rights for all workers
- ★ Income and wealth inequality
- ★ Getting big money out of politics
- ★ Dealing with climate change and the environment
- ★ Living wage for all & national $15 per hour minimum wage

ORGANIZING A GRASSROOTS ARMY

Bernie says it over and over: "We're up against a billionaire class intent on buying our democracy." And while his supporters have been incredible in helping to raise funds, we need to rely on something bigger, something stronger: a campaign built by a grassroots army.

WINNING SUPPORT FROM OUR UNIONS

The political revolution that is needed won't be successful unless we get organized labor behind it. That's where every union member can play an important role.

Labor for Bernie is organizing rank-and-file union members to form volunteer teams within their respective unions and within their communities to support Bernie.
